Articling Student

Nikta Shirazian joined Lindsay LLP as an articled student after completing her law degree at Thompson Rivers University in Kamloops, British Columbia. As a graduate of one of Canada's newest law schools, Nikta brings a fresh perspective and energy to her work here at the firm.

While studying law full time, Nikta served as a research assistant to five professors and a senior editor for the Canadian Journal of Comparative and Contemporary Law. She also earned a place on the Dean's List for Academic Achievement.

Nikta combines her sharp research skills with her interest in using technology to create efficient, accurate client strategies. As an articled student, she manages a very busy workload where she assists lawyers in a variety of insurance defence matters.
